Zviewer

Capture Image with Zviewer on iPhone

If you are pressing the camera button on the Zviewer app and it is not saving an image to your camera roll on your iPhone, then please follow these steps to enable this feature.

1. Go to the Settings menu in your iPhone.

2. Select Privacy.

(c) 2024 Jeremy Schultz <itmanager@eptco.com> | 2024-03-28 21:09
URL: https://kb.zmodo.com/index.php?action=artikel&cat=183&id=312&artlang=en

3. Select Photos.

(c) 2024 Jeremy Schultz <itmanager@eptco.com> | 2024-03-28 21:09
URL: https://kb.zmodo.com/index.php?action=artikel&cat=183&id=312&artlang=en

4. Then make sure the Zviewer applicatoin is set to ON.

(c) 2024 Jeremy Schultz <itmanager@eptco.com> | 2024-03-28 21:09
URL: https://kb.zmodo.com/index.php?action=artikel&cat=183&id=312&artlang=en

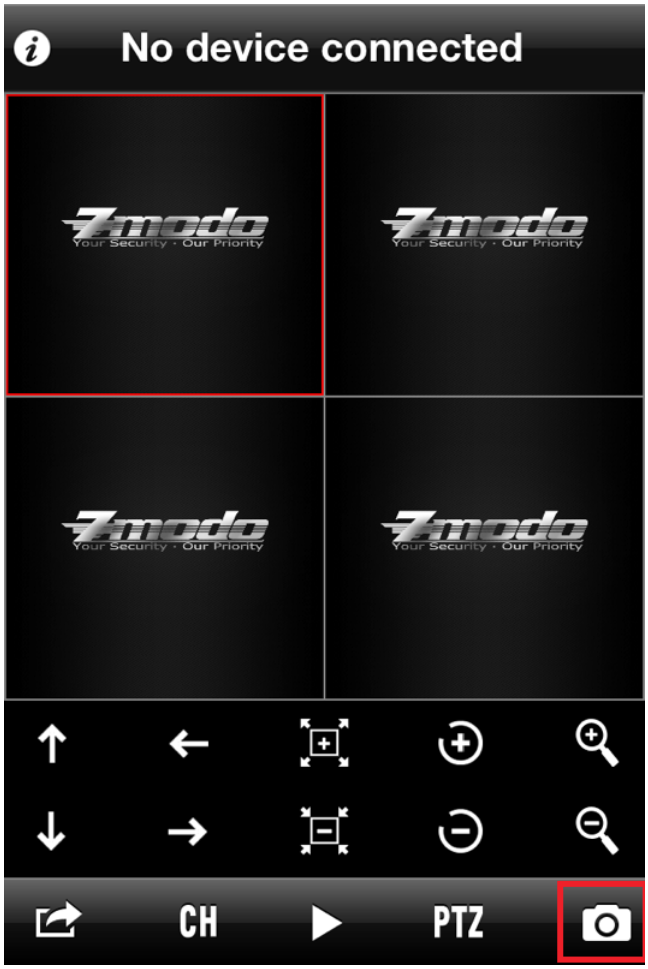

Zviewer

(c) 2024 Jeremy Schultz <itmanager@eptco.com> | 2024-03-28 21:09
URL: https://kb.zmodo.com/index.php?action=artikel&cat=183&id=312&artlang=en

5. You should now be able to press the camera capture button on the lower right, and it will save a screen shot for the image of the window that is selected with the red outline.

Unique solution ID: #1312
Author: Ed Lamont
Last update: 2014-04-18 15:54

(c) 2024 Jeremy Schultz <itmanager@eptco.com> | 2024-03-28 21:09
URL: https://kb.zmodo.com/index.php?action=artikel&cat=183&id=312&artlang=en